100 Days

We marked the 100th day of school on February 13th. Our kindergarten class was dressed to impress, looking like they've weathered the last 100 days well. Part of their celebration was the collection of 100 canned goods for the Compassion New England Food Pantry.

Windows on Wildlife

The Elementary school enjoyed a visit from Heidi Wejman of Windows on Wildlife and her beautiful birds on Friday, January 16th. Here is a picture of Ms. Wejman holding Hattie.

New Prospective Parent Meeting

If you know someone who is interested in checking out BCA for their child(ren), we will be having an Open House and Informational Meeting for Prospective Parents on Monday, March 9th, at 7P.M.

Prospective parents of students in Kindergarten - 12th Grade will have an opportunity to hear about our vision, educational philosophy, and academic measurement practices, as well as tour the facility. Please let the office know or have interested parties call the school office at 508-634-8171.

4th-5th Trip to Boston Symphony Orchestra

The 4th & 5th Grade classes went to the Boston Symphony Orchestra on Friday, February 6th. While there, they had a private concert by Violinist Victor Romanul. Mr. Romanul has been performing professionally since he was seven. An active recitalist, teacher, and soloist, he has performed throughout the world. As a soloist, he was named in "Best of Boston" in 1997 by the Boston Globe. He has given master classes throughout the country at many schools, including Northwestern, Columbia, Oberlin, and SUNY Stony Brook. As a professor of violin at Boston Conservatory, he has taught violin, chamber music, and pedagogy. He has served as a coach for the Greater Boston Youth Symphony Orchestra and the New England Conservatory Preparatory orchestras.

International Food Festival & Talent Show

One of our biggest events of the year is coming up on March 27th. The International Food Festival & Talent Show is a fun night for the whole family. Each class chooses a country to represent in decor and cuisine. Travel around the world (without ever leaving our own gym) sampling foods with passport punch cards. After globetrotting, make a stop at the Talent Show for some world class entertainment from BCA students. Stay tuned for how you can be involved.
